

The Shimoseki is the designated area in the Dojo where Bogu is kept during training. The Bogu must be arranged compactly to ensure it can be quickly donned or moved if necessary.

The Zekken attached to the Tare identifies the owner of the gear. Each student is personally responsible for ensuring their Bogu is correctly organized, does not obstruct others, and occupies minimal space.

